1. Gold Leaf

This Art Deco-inspired wall sconce from Metropolitan Lighting is a heavy cast leaf embracing a sculpted alabaster pocket—just right for lining an entry hall or the walls of your home theater.

2. Hello Dali

The Dali Round Coffee Table by Katy Eppley of Eppley Design for Aimara Masterpieces is topped by iron with an exquisite, rare finish and has incienso wood legs that extend to the surface.

3. Rock the Cradle

Laura Kirar's Cradle Wing Chair at Baker Knapp & Tubbs was inspired by the work of Danish designer Kaare Klint. The wings are decorated with polished bronze nailhead trim for just a touch of jewelry.

Casino Night

On November 14th, 2006, the New York Design Center and Domino magazine hosted: "A Full House Beats: Interior Designer Poker Party." Guests played their best hand next to their favorite interior designers' including the evenings benefit chairs Christopher Coleman, Celerie Kemble, Laura Kirar and Douglas Wilson. Proceeds of the event benefitted Ronald McDonald House Charities®.
