Angela Adams

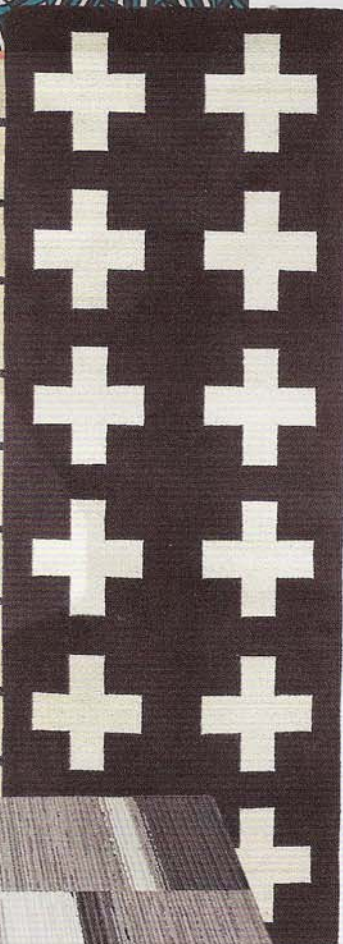

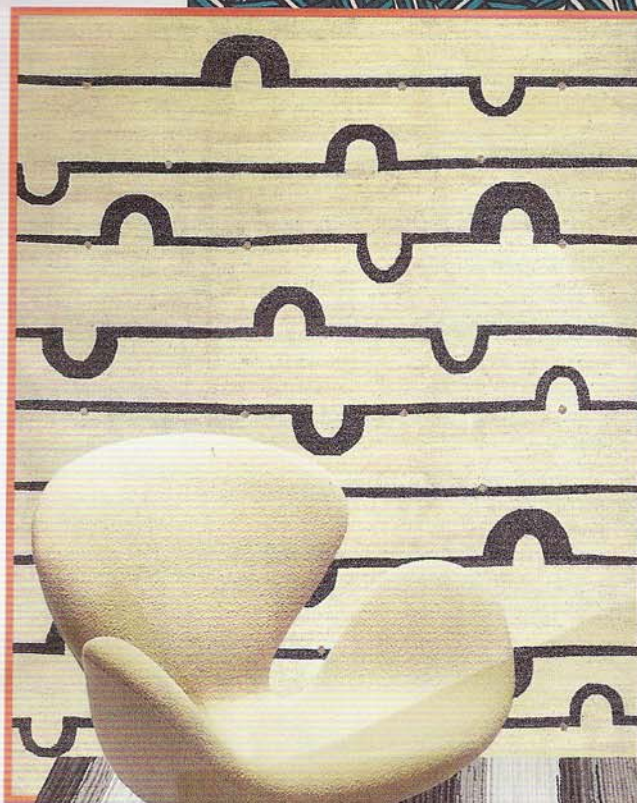

Officially diversifying into minerals, the Birds and the Bees collection welcomes Crystals, an 8-by-10-foot rug in New Zealand wool that's hand-tufted via cut-and-loop techniques. Available in Seaglass, Robin's Egg, Peacock, or custom colors. Custom sizes also beckon. 800-255-9454; angelaadams.com.

Tufenkian Artisan Carpets

Inspired by contemporary art, much like the linear abstractions of Chant Black, sparked Laura Kirar's New Moderns series. Hand-knotted in wool-hemp, the Tibetan rug comes in seven standard sizes—ranging from 2 feet by 3 feet to 12 feet by 16 feet—in addition to custom. 800-432-9997; tufenkiancarpets.com.

Linda Belden Handmade Rugs

Does she or doesn't she? Only her shearer knows for sure. For the record, Natural Wool Rugs use only un-dyed wool for designs like Natural Crosses. Paying homage to traditional African textiles, but produced in a Zapotec village in Mexico, the rug comes flat-woven or hand-knotted, in custom sizes.

InterfaceFlor

Natural imperfections, say the tonal variations of wood grain, inspired the randomness of Across the Board. One of David Oakey's three Board Games, the near 20-inch-square carpet tiles in tufted cut-and-loop construction incorporate soft, undyed nylon with post-consumer recycled content. Available in six colors. 800-336-0225; interfaceflor.com. circle 689

Emma Gardner Design

Selecting seashells at the seashore, the designer imagined something softer. Fire Island is hand-knotted in Tibetan wool, Chinese silk, or both, in standard sizes of 6 feet by 9 feet, 9 by 12, and 8 by 10, plus custom dimensions. Available in blue, green, Pale Shell, or custom colors. 866-331-2111; emmagardnerdesign.com.
