antennae

1 One Mississippi, two Mississippis—in fact, you may want as many as three or four “Mississippi” papers to cover your wall, but it’s the worth it. The custom-made design comes from a set of scenic wallpapers by Thomas Jayne depicting early North American landscapes. They are available from De Groot’s new shop in Chelsea, New York, from $85 per panel. Ring 001 212 964 9750, or visit degroot.com.

2 You won’t need to fish for compliments with Nina Campbell’s waxy-craft table (119,50), an unusual table found among the second-hand tables and floors in her latest accessories range. Snag up this crosshatch staple remover (16,50) too. Ring 020 7225 1011, or visit ninacampbell.com.

3 Careening has never been the most stylish of pursuits. But that could be about to change thanks to the glossy black “Christmas’s Revenge” (115,000). Constructed by the crew from Giffords Circus, it features beautiful wood paneling, a buffet table, bed and, most importantly, a bar. To find further necessities for the quintessential Englishman, including these cashmere socks (135), visit the Private House. Ring 01967 870600, or visit theprivatehouse.com.

4 Habl Construction is a New York one-stop interiors shop, where antiques, folk art, upholstery, lighting and hard-to-find home accessories combine in a fresh, funky and sometimes humorous way. We particularly like its range of block-printed fabrics, including the different colourways of “heads,” “stripes” and the leaf-patterned “Tig” (from $130 per set). Ring 001 212 228 8310, or visit hablconstruction.com.

5 Inspired by the geometric links of her previous 1950s-style bouclé, American decorator Laura Kirar made rattan rings the basis of all 13 pieces of her bold and sophisticated new furniture collection. The tables, chests and this dining chair (51,895 approx), available from McGuire, all come in both black and white. Ring 001 41 9628 1414, or visit tblinteriors.com.
